

No Peace

by Red Starr

They say
Peace,
Peace,
Where there is No Peace.
Yet,
In this deadly American society
There is only insistence
on false peace.
We must Be nice
to change.
Or so we are told
by the country
with its boot
on the neck of the world.
No,
we must organize,

we must fight.
We must make sure
there is No peace
until we bring about a better world.
